Incidentally we received a copy of the Platform, which seemed to be a kind of second edition, as it differs somewhat with the one we first saw. In glancing over it, we found on page 27, a statement referring to the supposed denial of the Christian Sabbath. As this purported to refer to the article rescinded by authority of the Conference of the Alleghany Synod, we were anxious to see where this article was to be found. Accordingly, on page 29, we found a reference to the Manual, the latest work of Dr. S. S. S. As we had never read this work, and had only borrowed it, for the sake of making a few extracts, we turned to...
