Dosh, and Discourse at Laying of Corner Stone of Gateway and Lodges But our practice is simply to bury the dead. We would not idolize the departed, nor would we cling too devotedly to their mortal remains; knowing that these vile bodies shall be changed, and shall come forth from their graves glorious and immortal bodies. But we would mark the spot where their ashes lie; and the monuments which affection may erect to their memory shall speak to the living. Centuries hence, much of the religion of the present age may be learned from the monuments which will whiten this eminence. In the early centuries of the Christian church, many of the persecuted followers of Christ at Rome, lived, died, and were buried in her hidden catacombs. Here many of the early martyrs were buried; and here the word cemetery, signifying a sleeping place, was first applied to the tomb. A visit to subterranean Rome will teach us how the early Christians died. Their belief in the immortality of the human soul, is read in every inscription. The good, in death, but fall asleep in Christ - they shall awake again to immortal life. How beautiful is the following inscription, rudely engraved upon a rough tablet: Gamella sleeps in peace. A devoted husband inscribes upon the tombstone of his consort, A most loving wife - she sleeps in peace. Fond parents say of their daughter, Amelia, our sweetest daughter. Upon one of the tombs is engraven, Primitius - in peace. A most valiant martyr after many torments;...
