Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Markets for Agricultural Implements and Machinery in South Africa Sir: There is submitted herewith a report on the markets for agricultural implements and machinery in South Africa, by Commercial Agent Juan Homs. Mr. Homs has covered with thoroughness and a clear appreciation of fundamental factors the agricultural conditions that prevail in the Union of South Africa, in Rhodesia, and in certain of the less important regions contiguous thereto. He has not confined himself to a bare statement of the elements that enter directly into the implement business. Recognizing the importance of a broad and general comprehension of the underlying circumstances that determine the extent and character of that trade, he has discussed at some length topography, climate and rainfall, soil conditions, the character of the population, the classes of labor employed, the progress made in the direction of careful and scientific methods, the activities in agricultural education, and, in the main, all those aspects of the subject that have even an indirect bearing on the market for farm equipment. The crops grown in South Africa...
