Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Phoebe Maclaren believes that she has it all - a loving husband, children she adores and the joy of a comfortable home and good friends. Then a sudden family tragedy reveals secrets from the past that shake her secure world and cause her to question her very identity. Forced to confront the past, Phoebe discovers that, through her new found faith in a loving God, she has a new identity; one far more secure and lasting than anything her family or the world can offer her. Josie Grey is young, energetic and successful in her career as a journalist. Deciding to spend Christmas at home in the small coastal village of Turtle Bay, she meets Sebastien, a charming French doctor who works at a local clinic. As her feelings for him develop, she realises there is more to life than success in her chosen career. But only when the truth about a deep sadness that has haunted her mother comes to light, will Josie be able to find the happiness she has sought for so long. Both women find themselves on a journey of discovery that will bring them together in a totally unexpected way, as God works to fulfill His plans and purposes in their lives and heal the deep hurts of the past.
