

Jamaican Steppers

By T Anthony Johnson, K M Johnson

East Road Publishing, LLC, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .For many years we have heard stories about Italian, Irish, Russian and other organized crime families. This fictional tale delves into the life of Jamaican organized crime. Like other groups that migrated to the United States, some Jamaicans were faced with anguish as they tried to live out the American Dream. These two characters, like many immigrants before them, realized that the American Dream was not going to be given to them so they decided to just take it. The authors chronicles the life and times of two Jamaican immigrants caught up in the fast life of illicit drug activities, easy money, deceit, and the misery that comes along with such a lifestyle. Chuckie and Stepper, the two main characters in this novel, once walked a straight and narrow line as so many young men have done, but their overwhelming lust for money and power lead them to open warfare with some of the deadliest Jamaicans in New York. Soon they would become the subject of a massive police investigation stretching from New York to...
