

Piano Camp: A Short Story (Paperback)

By Shoshanah Lee Marohn

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Would you give up your dignity for five thousand dollars? In order to get her five thousand dollar Pell Grant, Shoshanah signs up for a one credit Piano Camp course from the college course catalogue, only to figure out too late that it is a real camp, intended for children. To make matters worse, there is an actual public recital at the end of the camp, which will be attended by the parents of all of the children of piano camp, and it will be covered by the local newspaper. Determined to get her five thousand dollar grant, Shoshanah goes through with the class, in spite of her twenty-seven years of age and her terrible piano playing. Hilarity ensues.
