As to length of service of such officers, an allowance was granted to them by act of parliament. See hereafter, Section II. borne case of a delay being unavoidably incurred, His Royal Highness directs that an especial explanation as to the cause of it shall be made to the Secretary at War. By order of His Royal Highness the Commander in Chief. (Signed) HARRY CALVERT, Adjutant General of the Forces. CIRCULAR. War Office, 12t/t Sept. 1804. Sir, From the frequent irregularities which take place in the mode of addressing applications to this office, and which, besides being the cause of considerable trouble to this department, and to those who make the applications, are also productive of delay in the conduct of the public service; I am induced to transmit the following instructions on the above head, for the information and guidance of yourself and the other officers of the regiment under your command. Officers belonging to regiments stationed in Great Britain, Guernsey and Jersey, (not being commanding officers,) are not, unless in extraordinary cases of special and obvious necessity, to address themselves directly to this department, but are to apply, in the first instance, to the commanding officers of their respective regiments, whose experience and information, on...
