Definitely one of the better book We have possibly read. We have read through and i also am certain that i am going to gonna study once again yet again in the foreseeable future. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

Excerpt from In Memoriam: The Reverend Henry Nitchie Cobb, D.D., Corresponding Secretary, Board of Foreign Missions, the Reformed Church in America, 1882-1910 Interest in the churches at home in the work abroad, and in his willing and most helpful identification with every movement which aimed at the enlightenment and enlistment of the constituency at home or the expansion of the work abroad. During Dr. Cobb s secretaryship the work in all our missions greatly advanced, the number of missionaries trebled and the receipts increased almost fourfold. It was during his incumbency that the Arabian Mission, which was organized in 1889, grew to be one of our strongest mis sions. He officially visited our missions in Asia in 1892, and again in 1904, receiving the warmest welcome from the missionaries, greatly endearing himself to the Oriental Christian constituency and by his valuable counsel greatly strengthening the efficiency of the work in every country which he visited. Hence the mourning for Dr. Cobb is not limited to us who were brothers to him in the homeland where he inspired and led the Church forward to in creasing effort and offerings for the Kingdom of Christ. He is mourned today in many lands - in Arabia, in India, in China and in Japan - mourned by the missionaries who loved and trusted him and by those brought out of heathenism who saw him years ago for a day or two, and who heard his encouraging words and received his blessing. An obituary sketch of such a man is not complete if the keynote of his life is not emphasized. Dr. Cobb was a man of great faith - faith in God and His great...
