The Wacky Winter on Wiggly Way introduces readers to the concepts of fear, loss and doubt through the eyes of Stuart, a storyteller in need of a winter home. Stuart embarks on a journey of self-discovery and inspires others in the house whom are seeking redemption. Follow Stuart and his new friends as they learn about self-esteem and reliance as they are confronted by Piggly Wiggly, the angry landlord and his efforts to prevent the friends from sharing happiness at One Wiggly Way. Stuart is guided by his confident and storytelling partner, Henry the Magical Mouse, who challenges Stuart to follow his dream of writing down his stories. He quickly befriends Isabelle, the broken heartened-librarian and her cat Annie, who dares to ask Isabelle the forbidden question Is she afraid to love again? Let's not forget Ophelia, the former opera star who is too terrified to sing again and trying to find her inner beauty. Join them is this uplifting story as they decide to share the holidays together and dare to break the...
